THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

“The Star-Spangled Banner”

by Francis Scott Key

Led by Alyssa C. Parsons ’20

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE ALMA MATER

From Finlandia

by Jean Sibelius

Led by Deirdre C. Lahiff '20

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance; naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim;
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

CLOSING REMARKS

Sean F. Reid, Ph.D.

Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

VALERIE B. ACKERMAN, J.D.

COMMISSIONER, BIG EAST CONFERENCE DOCTOR OF LAWS

Val Ackerman is commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference, the NCAA Division I athletic conference that includes Providence College.

Ms. Ackerman became the fifth BIG EAST commissioner in 2013, following its reorganization as a basketball-centered conference, and led the office relocation to New York City. She manages the conference's partnerships with Fox Sports, which provides game coverage on FOX, FS1, and FS2, and with Madison Square Garden, which hosts the BIG EAST Tournament every March. She also led the negotiations that brought the University of Connecticut, a charter BIG EAST school, back to the conference in 2020.

Ms. Ackerman grew up in Pennington, N.J. She attended the University of Virginia as one of the school's first female student-athlete scholarship recipients and became the first 1,000-point scorer in basketball program history. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in political and social thought, she played a year of professional basketball in France. She then earned a law degree from the University of California, Los Angeles.

After working in a private law practice, Ms. Ackerman joined the NBA as a staff attorney in 1988 and later served as special assistant to NBA Commissioner David Stern and as NBA vice president of business affairs. From 1996-2005, she was the first president of the Women's National Basketball Association. In 2005, she was elected president of USA Basketball, leading the men's and women's teams to gold medal performances at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. She also served two terms as the U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation.

In 2010, Ms. Ackerman assisted the National Hockey League in formulating a long-term plan to support women's ice hockey, and in 2013 she prepared a comprehensive white paper for the NCAA on growth strategies for women's college basketball.

Ms. Ackerman was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010 and serves on its board of directors. She was selected as an inductee for the Class of 2021 for the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, which presented her with its John Bunn Lifetime Achievement Award in 2008. She is a board member of Women Leaders in College Sports, a mentor in the U.S. State Department's Global Sports Mentoring Program, and an advisor to the Vatican's Sport at the Service of Humanity initiative.

Ms. Ackerman and her husband, Charlie Rappaport, live in New York City. They are the parents of two daughters, Emily and Sally.

J. PETER BENZIE '70

TRUSTEE EMERITUS
FINANCIAL SERVICES SENIOR EXECUTIVE
DOCTOR OF COMMERCIAL SCIENCE (POSTHUMOUS)

J. Peter Benzie '70, trustee emeritus of Providence College at the time of his death on Nov. 1, 2020, helped shape the direction of every major capital project on campus during the last decade. During his leadership of the Trustees' Building and Property Committee, the College experienced an unprecedented transformation, with construction of the Ruane Center for the Humanities, Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium, the Arthur F. and Patricia Ryan Center for Business Studies, the Science Complex addition, and the Ruane Friar Development Center.

Mr. Benzie served on the Board of Trustees from 2009-2018 and was granted emeritus status upon his retirement. He was a member of the Providence President's Council for nine years and worked diligently to raise funds for PC. He complemented his service with a sustained spirit of financial generosity. Mr. Benzie and his wife of 30 years, Pamela Peters Benzie, were members of the Centennial Circle of the St. Dominic Society.

In 2015, he was honored with the Personal Achievement Award from PC's National Alumni Association, recognizing his contributions to the College at his 45th reunion.

Mr. Benzie was admired for his positive demeanor, organizational skills, attention to detail, and ability to listen. In advance of the three annual Board of Trustees meetings, he would invite students and faculty members to dinner to hear their thoughts about the College. He was known, at the start of each new year, to reflect on five personal goals he planned to achieve.

A native of Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. Benzie studied business and was a member of the Army ROTC Patriot Battalion as an undergraduate. After serving as an Army officer in Europe from 1970-1974, he became branch manager and regional manager at Shearson Lehman Brothers—the start of a 45-year career in the financial services industry.

At the time of his death, Mr. Benzie was senior managing director of Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., in New York City. He also worked at Chase Manhattan Investment Services, Fidelity Investments, and Automated Data Processing. He was among the executives who participated in the development and implementation of the spinoff of Broadridge Financial Solutions from ADP in 2007.

Mr. Benzie was the father of seven and the grandfather of 11.

SISTER JANE GERETY, R.S.M., Ph.D.

CHIEF MISSION OFFICER, SAINT JOSEPH'S HEALTH SYSTEM
PAST PRESIDENT, SALVE REGINA UNIVERSITY
DOCTOR OF HUMANITIES

Sister Jane Gerety, R.S.M., Ph.D. retired as president of Salve Regina University in 2019 after 10 years in that role. She now is chief mission officer for Saint Joseph's Health System, a healthcare ministry in Atlanta that includes Mercy Care, Emory-St. Joseph's Hospital, and Mercy Foundation.

Inaugurated as Salve Regina's seventh president in 2009, Sister Jane led the university through a decade of change. She introduced new academic programs, expanded student scholarships, and oversaw a renovation of the O'Hare Academic Building that added 23,000 square feet of space and updated laboratories for science and nursing. Under her leadership, Salve Regina launched a doctoral program, a master's program and fully online RN-BS program in nursing, a master of fine arts program in creative writing, and a satellite campus in Warwick to serve working adults.

After joining Salve Regina's Board of Trustees in 1995, she chaired the committee to rewrite the university's mission statement, reaffirming its mission of mercy and the Catholic intellectual tradition.

Prior to becoming Salve president, Sister Jane served in the St. Joseph's Healthcare System from 1992-2009. She was senior vice president, sponsorship and corporate compliance officer before becoming executive board officer in 2008. She was able to help St. Joseph's become one of the first hospitals to establish a Center for Ethics in Health Care.

Sister Jane was born in White Plains, N.Y., and moved with her family to Washington, D.C., at age 4. She encountered the Religious Sisters of Mercy as a student at Holy Trinity High School in Georgetown and decided to enter the order. She studied for a degree in French at Mount Saint Agnes College in Baltimore, run by the Sisters of Mercy, and went on to earn a master's degree in French from Middlebury College and a Ph.D. in English from the University of Michigan.

Sister Jane taught French, Spanish, and English to middle school and high school students in Maryland and Alabama. At Carlow College in Pittsburgh, also sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, she was associate professor of English, learning skills specialist, and academic dean from 1988-1992. She also created a baccalaureate program for poor women in the Pittsburgh Hill District.

In recognition of her service, Salve Regina named its student center, Gerety Hall at Wakehurst, in her honor in 2019.

MAE C. JEMISON, M.D.

PHYSICIAN, ASTRONAUT, ENGINEER, EDUCATOR DOCTOR OF HUMANITIES

Mae C. Jemison, M.D., thought leader, physician, engineer, former NASA astronaut, entrepreneur, social scientist, and educator, is at the forefront of integrating the physical and social sciences with art and culture to solve problems and foster innovation. In 1992, she made world history by becoming the first woman of color in space aboard the Space Shuttle Endeavour STS-47 Spacelab Japan mission.

Growing up in Chicago, she attended public schools. Dr. Jemison entered Stanford University at age 16, earning bachelor's degrees in chemical engineering and African and Afro-American Studies. As a student at Cornell University Medical College, she traveled to Cuba, interned with the Flying Doctors in Kenya, and worked in a Cambodian refugee camp in Thailand. An avid lifelong dancer, she also found time to take lessons at Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Dr. Jemison was the Area Peace Corps Medical Officer for Sierra Leone and Liberia.

Dr. Jemison returned to the U.S. and worked as a general practitioner in Los Angeles while taking graduate-level engineering courses. She was selected for the NASA astronaut corps in 1987. As the Science Mission Specialist on her spaceflight, she performed experiments in material and life sciences and human physiology. She began shifts with "Hailing frequencies open," a salute to her friend, actress Nichelle Nichols, Lt. Uhura in the original Star Trek TV series.

After leaving NASA in 1993, Dr. Jemison founded two technology companies and was an environmental studies professor at Dartmouth College. She established the non-profit Dorothy Jemison Foundation for Excellence, named after her mother, which designs and implements experiential STEM education programs impacting thousands of students and hundreds of teachers worldwide. Dr. Jemison leads the non-profit global initiative 100 Year Starship® (100YSS), which seeks to foster the capabilities for human travel beyond our solar system within the next 100 years while benefiting life on Earth.

Dr. Jemison is a member of the National Academy of Medicine, the National Women's Hall of Fame, the National Medical Association Hall of Fame, and the board of Kimberly Clark and is honorary member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority among many honors. Dr. Jemison, the first astronaut to appear on Star Trek, is a mini-figure in the LEGO Women of NASA kit. A co-host of NatGeo's One Strange Rock, she was space operations advisor for its miniseries, MARS. She authored the Find Where the Wind Goes: Moments from My Life, for teens.

HUGH F. LENA III, Ph.D.

PROVOST, SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

Dr. Hugh F. Lena, III stepped down on June 30, 2020, after 46 years as a Providence College administrator and faculty member. For 16 years, he was the College's chief academic officer—vice president for academic affairs from 2004-2009 and the College's first provost and senior vice president from 2009-2019.

Dr. Lena balanced transformational changes to the educational experience at PC with an unwavering fidelity to the College's heritage as a Catholic and Dominican liberal arts institution. He oversaw the hiring of more than 60 percent of the current faculty, championed the process that linked faculty tenure with promotion, and introduced a faculty post-tenure review system. Academic governance and assessment came into sharper focus during his tenure.

Dr. Lena shepherded the introduction of a revamped core curriculum, including an improved Development of Western Civilization Program that includes a fourth-semester colloquium, and introduced new programs on the undergraduate and graduate levels and in the School of Continuing Education. During his time at the College, academic divisions were organized into schools led by faculty deans.

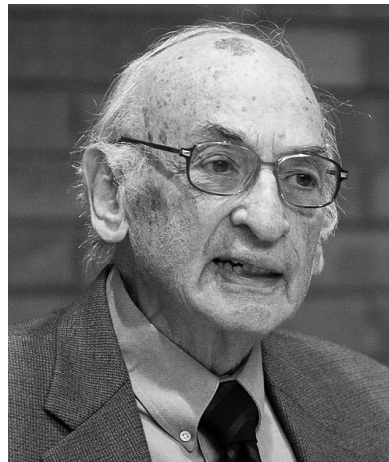

Dr. Lena was hired as assistant professor of sociology in 1974 and promoted to professor in 1993. He served as division director for sociology from 1978-1980 and department chair from 1992-95. Even as an administrator, he taught courses in sociology, the Liberal Arts Honors Program, and the MBA Program. He also taught in the Public and Community Service Studies Program, which was the first of its kind in the nation and which he helped to establish.

Dr. Lena has a Ph.D. and master's degree in sociology from the University of Connecticut and a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Notre Dame.

In service to his community over the past 25 years, he volunteered at Mary House, the soup kitchen at St. Patrick's Church in Providence, and at Sunrise House, run by AIDS Care Ocean State. He also served on the Institutional Review Board at Miriam Hospital and as board member at Providence Community Health Centers.

Dr. Lena, along with his wife, Susan H. Lena '86G, has accepted a fellowship in the Inspired Leadership Initiative at the University of Notre Dame for the 2021-2022 academic year. They are the parents of a daughter, Dr. Jennifer C. Lena.

FRANCIS P. MACKAY, Ph.D.

PROFESSOR OF CHEMISTRY CHAMPION OF DIVERSITY
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE (POSTHUMOUS)

Dr. Francis P. “Pat” MacKay, a faculty member, administrator, and champion of diversity and inclusivity at Providence College for more than 50 years, will be awarded a posthumous honorary degree. The retired associate professor of chemistry died on Sept. 9, 2019.

In 1968, following the assassination of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Dr. MacKay teamed with two faculty members to establish a scholarship fund to make it possible for more Black students to attend PC. Their efforts led to the establishment of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship Program, which now has awarded more than 700 scholarships to students of color. In 2018, Dr. MacKay was honored with one of the College’s first MLK Vision Awards. It was presented at a program that featured a keynote address by Dr. King’s daughter, Dr. Bernice A. King.

From 1985-1992, while serving as vice president for academic administration, Dr. MacKay established the position of dean of multicultural students, an office of multicultural affairs, and the Center for Teaching Excellence. He was president of the Faculty Senate from 1978-1979 and from 1997-2000. Even after his retirement in 2001, he continued to teach as a special lecturer in science.

Dr. MacKay and his wife, Jacqueline F. Kiernan MacKay, director of the Parent and Family Program at the College and an adjunct faculty member in the graduate program in education, have been benefactors to PC. In 2005, they pledged $50,000 to establish the Francis P. and Jacqueline K. MacKay Scholarship Fund for students of color studying elementary or secondary education. They said the pledge was part of their commitment to social justice and to their belief in the quality of education in America.

When St. Dominic Chapel was built in 2001, the MacKays donated the stained-glass window that depicts St. Martin de Porres, the Dominican saint who is the patron of interracial harmony.

A native of Waterbury, Conn., Dr. MacKay worked at DuPont before joining the PC faculty in 1958 as an instructor in chemistry. He received a doctorate in chemistry from Pennsylvania State University in 1956, a master’s degree from the College of the Holy Cross in 1952, and a bachelor’s degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1951.

ERICH E. MILLER

PRESIDENT, MY BROTHER’S KEEPER
DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Erich E. Miller is president of My Brother’s Keeper, a Christian charity with locations in Easton and Dartmouth, Mass. With 14 staff members and 4,000 volunteers, including Providence College students, the organization’s mission is “to bring the love and hope of Jesus Christ to those we serve” through deliveries of furniture and food.

Mr. Miller became the first paid employee of My Brother’s Keeper in 1998. Under his tenure as president, the organization expanded services to the South Coast region of Massachusetts and built a 23,000-square-foot facility in Dartmouth.

Mr. Miller was born in New Orleans. After graduating in 1993 from the University of Notre Dame with a degree in finance, he volunteered full-time for a year at My Brother’s Keeper through a post-graduate service program, Holy Cross Associates. From 1994-96, Miller lived in Portland, Ore., and worked in a variety of human service capacities, including with at-risk youth, drug and alcohol treatment programs, and homeless outreach, to better understand the root causes of homelessness. From 1996-98, he worked as a mental health case manager at Oaklawn Psychiatric Center in Goshen, Ind.

He returned to My Brother’s Keeper in 1998, became the first operations manager in 2001, and was named the first executive director in 2008. He was appointed president in 2011, succeeding the organization’s co-founder and president-emeritus, Jim Orcutt.

My Brother’s Keeper has made more than 165,000 deliveries to local families in need during his time on staff, and the organization’s response during the pandemic was remarkable. From March 16, 2020, to May 31, 2021—the approximate dates when COVID-19 restrictions began and ended in Massachusetts—My Brother’s Keeper completed 25,146 deliveries serving 83,783 children and adults, with services valued at $5.5 million, despite a 90% reduction in volunteers.

Mr. Miller serves on the advisory board of Bishop Stang High School in Dartmouth. He lived a Cursillo retreat in 1999 and has participated in a team and leadership role several times at the Holy Cross Retreat House in Easton and at St. Basil’s Salvatorian Center in Methuen. He is a former member of the Parish Council at St. Mary’s Parish in Bristol, R.I.

Mr. Miller and his wife, Jodi, live in Bristol and are the parents of three children.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia, rooted in traditions that began at 12th century European universities, conveys historical significance and specific meaning to contemporary academic ceremony. Often lacking buildings of their own, those universities would undertake teaching and learning in churches, with academic activities involving both clerics and laypeople. Historians suggest that scholars of the day wore hoods and long robes as a means for staying warm in unheated church buildings. From those origins has evolved a colorful tradition rife with symbolism and meaning.

According to standards adopted by American universities, the cut of the gown signifies whether the wearer has a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, with the doctoral robe adorned with three bars on each sleeve and front panels. The hood represents both the wearer's field of study and the institution that awarded his or her degree. Headwear, both the mortarboard cap and tam, and the tassel itself, may be assigned to represent a specific field of study.
