THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key
Music by John Stafford Smith
Vocals by Aidan C. Benjamin '23

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE ALMA MATER

From Finlandia
by Jean Sibelius
Vocals by Angela M. Mitsuma '23

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance; naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim;
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

REVEREND MONSIGNOR ALEX BOBBY BENSON '97G

FOUNDER, MATTHEW 25 HOUSE DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Rev. Msgr. Alex Bobby Benson '97G, a priest in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Koforidua, Ghana, has spent a lifetime following the directive of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew — to care for the hungry and thirsty, strangers, prisoners, and the dying. Citing the greatest commandment Jesus gave mankind — to love one another — he urges support for those living under difficult circumstances, especially those with HIV/AIDS, who are most often stigmatized.

In 1998, after completing a master's degree in religious studies at Providence College, Rev. Msgr. Benson returned to Koforidua to found Matthew 25 House, a ministry dedicated to helping people diagnosed with HIV/AIDS. The non-governmental organization began with nine HIV/AIDS patients and now serves upward of 1,000 people, including orphans and vulnerable children. It provides food and shelter, medical screenings, counseling, training in income-generating ventures, and interest-free loans to start businesses. Children receive help with school needs, including books, fees, transportation, clothes, food, medicine, and shoes.

A leading supporter of the United Nations Sustainable Goals agenda, Rev. Msgr. Benson worked collaboratively with the late PC physics professor Stephen J. Mecca, Ph.D. '64, '66G, '19Hon. on sanitation initiatives to improve health in Ghana. He has been a valued partner in PC's Maymester program, welcoming students, faculty, and staff on service and learning trips to his country. He visited PC in 2018 to discuss his charitable work.

With the help of students, he distributes packed food and drinks each Christmas to the inmates of the Koforidua Prisons, those in cells at the Koforidua Central Police Station, and to patients at three hospitals, and has fed the hungry in the streets on Christmas Day for the past 10 years.

Rev. Msgr. Benson was born in Mampong Ashanti, Ghana, studied for the priesthood at St. Peter's Regional Seminary in Cape Coast, and was ordained in 1981. He is a consultant for the diocesan curia. As a young priest, he pursued studies in Clinical and Pastoral Education in Ireland and the United States and now is a renowned CPE educator in Ghana. In 2004, he began construction of a 24-room Palliative Care Center to care for terminally ill patients. He still needs support to finish the project and run it by 2024.

In 2017, he won the MTN Heroes of Change Award for his work in Ghana, including his efforts to feed 1,000 needy people each month. He also received the Exclusive Men of the Year Africa Humanitarian Award in 2021.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

CHARLES M. BORKOSKI '71

VICE PRESIDENT FOR MARKETING AND PORTFOLIO
DEVELOPMENT (RETIRED), MCLAUGHLIN & MORAN
DOCTOR OF COMMERCIAL SCIENCE

Charles M. Borkoski '71, known as Chuck, has been dedicated to Providence College in ways large and small for more than 50 years. Since 2009, he has served on the Student Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees. He has been a member of the Providence President's Council for more than 15 years. He has chaired every reunion for his class, served as a class agent every year since 1971, and has made a monetary gift to the college every year since graduation.

Mr. Borkoski was president of the National Alumni Association from 2005-2006 and president of the Greater Providence (Mal Brown) Alumni Club from 1991-1992. In 1994, the club honored him with the Mal Brown Award, its highest accolade, given to those alumni whose lives exemplify the love and loyalty for the college that was characteristic of athletic trainer Mal Brown '33. He also received the NAA's Distinguished Service Award in 1996.

Mr. Borkoski also is known for his philanthropy. With his wife, Leslie, he established the Chuck '71 and Leslie Borkoski '12P Scholarship Fund for students with demonstrated financial need. For two years, the Borkoskis served as co-chairs for A Night in Black and White, the college's fundraising celebration in Boston. He was chair of the Annual Fund from 1999-2000 and was a consistent phonathon volunteer.

When his daughter, Jenna Borkoski '12, was a PC student, Mr. Borkoski and his wife served on the college's Parents Council, and he and Leslie hosted incoming PC students at a welcome reception at their home on Cape Cod each summer from 2008-2011.

Mr. Borkoski studied business management at PC. He served as a class officer, Student Congress representative, and Friars Club member. In his senior year, he was co-manager of the 21 Club, the on-campus bar. In 1971, he was among 12 seniors who decided to dribble basketballs from Alumni Hall to Madison Square Garden in New York City to celebrate the resurgent Friars men's basketball team, which had just been invited to play in the National Invitational Tournament. During the 212-mile journey through three states, Mr. Borkoski was responsible for one of the most difficult jobs, arranging for police authorization to dribble along Route 1.

Mr. Borkoski retired in 2016 as vice president of marketing and portfolio development after a 46-year career with McLaughlin & Moran, the Anheuser-Busch distributor serving Rhode Island. The Borkoskis reside in Chatham, Massachusetts, and Naples, Florida.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DONNA J. FORMICHELLA, M.D. '78

GENERAL SURGEON (RETIRED), SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
PERMANENTE MEDICAL GROUP
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Donna J. Formichella, M.D. '78 was the first woman to graduate from the general surgery residency program at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles. A native of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and the granddaughter of Italian immigrants, she also was one of the first in her family to attend college and obtain a bachelor's degree.

Dr. Formichella studied biology at PC, was a member of the Honors Program, and graduated magna cum laude. She went on to medical school at Columbia University, earning her medical degree in 1982. At the time, fewer than 5 percent of surgeons in the United States were women, and of the 85,000 members of the American College of Surgeons, fewer than 3,500 were women. Despite this, Dr. Formichella applied to surgical residency programs. She spent two years at the Tufts-New England Medical Center program in Boston before transferring to Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles. In 1988, she achieved the distinction of being the first woman to graduate as a general surgeon from Cedars-Sinai.

Dr. Formichella chose to remain on the west coast, accepting a position with the Southern California Permanente Medical Group, where she became a partner in 1990. In her more than three decades as a general surgeon, certified by the American Board of Surgery and Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, she has performed thousands of operations. She served as assistant chief of surgery for Kaiser Permanente in Orange County from 2007-2017 and chaired the Cancer Committee and the Tumor Board for 25 years, among other administrative work. She was a clinical instructor in the general surgery residency program at the University of California, Irvine, for 25 years, mentoring young surgeons, many of them women. When she retired in December 2021, she was named a partner emeritus.

At her PC reunion in 2013, Dr. Formichella reunited with her classmate, John Hannen '78. They married in 2015. Mr. Hannen became president of PC's Southern California Alumni Chapter. They opened their home for gatherings to connect PC alumni, students, incoming students, and parents, even hosting a Thanksgiving dinner for 90 Friar basketball fans attending the John Wooden Classic in Anaheim in 2015. They co-chaired their reunion in 2018 and are active in this year's reunion as well.

Dr. Formichella, the mother of a son, Mark Jurjescu, continues to work as a general surgeon two weeks each month, dividing her time between California and her home in New Smyrna Beach, Florida.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

HILL HARPER, J.D.

HUMANITARIAN, AWARD-WINNING ACTOR, BEST-SELLING AUTHOR, ACTIVIST DOCTOR OF HUMANITIES

Hill Harper is a humanitarian, best-selling author, activist, and an award-winning actor best known for his television and film roles in The Good Doctor, CSI: NY, and He Got Game.

Mr. Harper graduated magna cum laude from Brown University with a bachelor of arts degree and was named valedictorian in his department. He graduated with a juris doctor degree, cum laude, from Harvard Law School, as well as with a master's degree in public administration, with honors, from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard. He holds honorary doctoral degrees from Howard University, Winston-Salem State University, Cheyney University, Le-Moyne Owen College, Westfield State College, Dillard University, Philander Smith College, and Tougaloo College.

Additionally, Mr. Harper has written four New York Times bestsellers: Letters to a Young Brother, Letters to a Young Sister, Letters to an Incarcerated Brother, The Conversation, and his award-winning book, The Wealth Cure, which addresses ways to solve the racial wealth gap. Letters to a Young Brother was named Best Book for Young Adults by the American Library Association in 2007. Mr. Harper has been recognized with seven NAACP Image Awards, four of them for his writing.

As an investor and business owner, Mr. Harper is the founder and chairman of The Black Wall Street App & Digital Wallet, owns a successful coffee franchise in downtown Detroit called The Roasting Plant, and is co-owner of A-Frame Brands and the award-winning New Orleans hotel, International House. He is the founder of the Manifest Your Destiny Foundation, a nonprofit dedicated to empowering underserved youth through mentorship and scholarship and grant programs; established The Pierce and Hill Harper Arts Foundation; is a proud life member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.; and served on the President's Cancer Panel, having been appointed by President Obama in 2011.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

SHEILA M. HARRITY, Ed.D. '87

EDUCATOR AND CAMPUS COORDINATOR, MASSACHUSETTS
ASSOCIATION OF VOCATIONAL ADMINISTRATORS
DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

Sheila M. Harrity, Ed.D. '87, the youngest of seven children from Worcester, Massachusetts, came to Providence College to play basketball and study social work. In 1985-1986, her junior year, the women's team finished first in the BIG EAST with a 24-6 record and qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

After graduation, she earned two master's degrees, one in early childhood education from Worcester State University and one in moderate special needs education from Assumption College. She also received a doctorate in educational leadership from Northeastern University.

While teaching public school in Worcester, Dr. Harrity was asked to address the dropout rate in the city's high schools. In a pilot program, 47 students were invited back to the classroom, and Dr. Harrity taught them mathematics, career exploration, and basketball. The program grew to serve 450 students. In 1997, she was named Worcester Public Schools Teacher of the Year.

In 2006, Dr. Harrity was tapped to become principal of the new Worcester Technical High School, a $90 million building that included a bank, spa, bakery, veterinary clinic, restaurant, graphics shop, and automotive garage. Worcester Tech was named a Blue Ribbon School by the U.S. Department of Education, establishing it as one of the 286 best public and private schools in the country, and Dr. Harrity was named Massachusetts Principal of the Year in 2013. The following year, she was named National High School Principal of the Year and honored at a White House reception. President Barack Obama was the school's graduation speaker.

From 2014 until her retirement in 2022, Dr. Harrity was superintendent of the Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School District in Fitchburg, Massachusetts, the second largest vocational district in the state, serving nearly 1,500 students from 18 communities. She also served as vice chair of the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education from 2015-2022.

In 2022, Dr. Harrity became coordinator of the Extended Campus Program run by the Massachusetts Association of Vocational Administrators in collaboration with Fitchburg State University and Westfield State University. The program helps vocational teachers and administrators earn professional licenses and college degrees.

Dr. Harrity and her husband reside in Franconia, New Hampshire, and have two daughters.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

ROBERT J. PALMISANO '66

PRESIDENT AND CEO, WRIGHT MEDICAL GROUP DOCTOR OF COMMERCIAL SCIENCE

Robert J. Palmisano '66 was named an emeritus trustee of Providence College in 2018 after completing three terms on the board, where he served on the Finance Committee and the Strategic Planning Committee.

Mr. Palmisano has been a faithful supporter of college initiatives. He and his wife, Jane, who had already given $1 million to the Our Moment comprehensive campaign, marked their 50th wedding anniversary in 2015 and the 50th anniversary of Mr. Palmisano's graduation in 2016 by giving another $1 million toward construction of the Arthur and Patricia Ryan Center for Business Studies. The beautiful two-story atrium is named in their honor.

Since January 2021, Mr. Palmisano has been chairman and chief executive officer of Priveterra Acquisition Corp. He previously served as director, president, and chief executive officer of Wright Medical Group, a global orthopedics company, from 2011-2020. Wright was successfully acquired by Stryker Corporation in 2020.

Mr. Palmisano has extensive experience in leading publicly traded medical device and pharmaceutical companies. He was director, president, and chief executive officer of ev3 Inc., a global endovascular device company, from 2008-2011, when it was acquired by Covidian Corporation. From 2003-2007, he was director, president, and chief executive officer of Intralase Corporation, a company that designed, developed, and manufactured laser devices for vision correction. He led the successful acquisition of Intralase by Advanced Medical Optics in 2007.

Mr. Palmisano was director, president, and chief executive officer of MacroChem Corporation, a development stage pharmaceutical corporation, from 2001-2003. From 1997-2001 he was director, president, and chief executive officer of Summit-Autonomous, Inc., a global ophthalmology company that was the first to receive approval by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for laser vision correction (LASIK). The company was acquired by Alcon, Inc., in October 2000. Prior to 1997, Mr. Palmisano held several executive positions at Bausch & Lomb, including president of the Eyewear Division.

He has been a member of the board of directors of Advanced Medical Optics, Osteotech, Inc., LenSx Lasers, Inc., Bausch & Lomb, Inc., and Avedro, Inc. He currently serves on the board of directors of Saluda Medical and RxSight Corporation.

Mr. Palmisano, who studied political science at PC, and his wife reside in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and Duxbury, Massachusetts. They are the parents of three sons, Christopher Palmisano '89, Eric Palmisano, and Matthew Palmisano, and are the grandparents of seven.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia, rooted in traditions that began at 12th century European universities, conveys historical significance and specific meaning to contemporary academic ceremony. Often lacking buildings of their own, those universities would undertake teaching and learning in churches, with academic activities involving both clerics and laypeople. Historians suggest that scholars of the day wore hoods and long robes as a means for staying warm in unheated church buildings. From those origins has evolved a colorful tradition rife with symbolism and meaning.

According to standards adopted by American universities, the cut of the gown signifies whether the wearer has a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, with the doctoral robe adorned with three bars on each sleeve and front panels. The hood represents both the wearer's field of study and the institution that awarded his or her degree. Headwear, both the mortarboard cap and tam, and the tassel itself, may be assigned to represent a specific field of study.
