MAY THE TWENTY-FIRST, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE

THE SEVENTY-SEVENTH COMMENCEMENT
PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

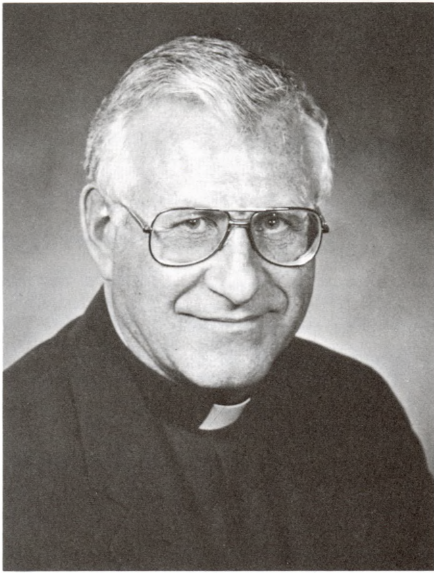

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

REVEREND PHILIP A. SMITH, O.P.
PRESIDENT OF PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

A MESSAGE TO GRADUATES AND PARENTS

I want to extend my congratulations to each member of the 1995 graduating class. Your days at Providence have "dwindled down," not to an end but to fulfillment. You have attained the lofty goal you set out to achieve years ago. I know I echo the sentiments of the entire Providence College community when I say that it has been a joy to have taught you and a delight to have known you.

I also extend my congratulations to the parents of our graduates. Many of you have sent your sons and daughters to Providence College at great personal cost. We recognize and appreciate the sacrifices you have made. We also are grateful that you had enough confidence in us to commit your sons and daughters to our care. We treated your confidence as a sacred trust.

It has been said that old people want peace and quiet; middle-aged people want love and respect; but young people want a challenge. Well, you are young, so I offer you this challenge: the challenge to listen to and respond to an eloquent plea, the most eloquent plea of all -- that of human persons crying out in anguish, despair and distress in this nation and all across the planet.

I have high hopes that you will confront my challenge successfully. During the past year, I have witnessed an enormous wellspring of goodness and generosity, care and concern on our campus. As you leave our confines, I hope and pray that each of you will have the insight to envision the world as a place of possibility and promise, that your choices will foster the ideals of human dignity, freedom and equality, that people will be better because they have known you and that the world will be a brighter place because you have lived.

Philip Smith O.P.

BIOGRAPHIES

JANE M. PAULEY

Jane M. Pauley has presented probing and compassionate interviews to millions of American viewers throughout her career at NBC News, beginning with the "Today" show in 1976 to her current billing as co-anchor of "Dateline NBC," which premiered in March 1992. A native of Indianapolis and a graduate of Indiana University with a major in political science, Pauley worked her way from being a local television news reporter in her hometown to become Chicago's first weeknight news anchor-woman. When she joined the "Today" show, Pauley drew overwhelming viewers as she anchored broadcasts from foreign locales throughout the world, the West and East coasts of the U.S., and every major political convention since 1976. She has received awards for her high ethical standards and moral conduct, for her work with civic and professional organizations, and an Emmy for her coverage of the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea.

VERY REVEREND MIGUEL CONCHA MALO, O.P.

Very Rev. Miguel Concha Malo, O.P., Dominican Provincial of Mexico, holds professorships in Latin American studies and social ethics at the National University of Mexico and is professor in theological studies at Ibero-Americana University. He is a working journalist who has written weekly columns in Mexico City newspapers for 15 years, and is the author and editor of significant publications about theology and human rights. A champion of human rights and social justice, Father Concha is co-founder and vice president of the Mexican Academy for Human Rights, and recently received the Bishop Mendez Arceo Award, Mexico's national award for human rights. He is a co-founder, former president, and current member of the Antonio de Montesinos Center for Social and Cultural Studies, and co-founder, former president, and current honorary president of the Francisco de Vitoria Center for Human Rights in Mexico. The provincial holds a master of theological studies degree and received his licentiate and doctorate in theology from the philosophy and theology institute, Le Saulchoir, in Paris, France, and his bachelor in theology from St. Thomas Aquinas Institute in Rome, Italy.

DOLORES B. GRIER

Dolores B. Grier is the first woman and first black person in the United States to serve as vice chancellor for community relations for the Archdiocese of New York. Highly respected for her accomplishments during more than 25 years of service in various capacities in the archdiocese, the lifelong Harlem resident has also worked tirelessly with the youth of her community. Her book, Black Is, helps young readers enhance communication skills and explore American black history. As president of the Harlem Book Association, she promotes the "art of reading" as an essential tool of life. Grier earned a master's degree in social work at Fordham University's Graduate School of Social Service and a certificate in human relations from the New School for Social Research, New York City. A frequent contributor to newspapers and magazines, she is the first black member of the Women's Press Club of New York. Her community leadership activities include serving as president of the Society for Black American Awareness and as founder and president of the Association of Black Catholics Against Abortion.

RABBI LESLIE YALE GUTTERMAN

Rabbi Leslie Yale Gutterman is no stranger to Rhode Island's civic, religious, and charitable circles. Born in Detroit, he is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a bachelor's degree in English. He also graduated from Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion with a master's degree in Hebrew Literature. He joined Temple Beth-El in Providence in 1970 as an assistant rabbi and was named senior rabbi in 1974. He has taken leading roles in numerous local charitable organizations: as former president of Jewish Family Services and the R.I. Board of Rabbis, former chairman of the R.I. Committee for the Humanities, and currently as a board member of Butler Hospital. He is also a founding member and honorary director of Hospice Care, Inc., a member of the R.I. Telecommunications Authority, and an executive board member of PROBE, the Providence Blueprint for Education.

JAMES F. HARDYMON

A Kentucky native who was trained as a civil engineer, James F. Hardymon has led Textron's transition from its holding company roots to an actively managed operating company through a consistent focus on growth and improvement in its core businesses. Textron, based in Providence, is ranked 57th on the Fortune list of the 500 largest U.S. industrial companies, with operations in six business segments: aircraft, automotive, industrial, systems and components, finance, and Paul Revere Insurance. Hardymon holds bachelor's and master's degrees in civil engineering from the University of Kentucky. In 1994, Hardymon was instrumental in encouraging new educational opportunities for women and minorities by offering Textron Scholarships and Diversity Scholarships to deserving women and minority undergraduates at Providence College. A trustee of the University of Kentucky, Hardymon serves as a director of Fleet Financial Group and Paul Revere Corporation. He is also a member of the Industrial Policy Advisory Committee, administered by the office of the U.S. Trade Representative and the Department of Commerce.
