PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

SEVENTY-EIGHTH COMMENCEMENT

MAY THE NINETEENTH, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-SIX

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

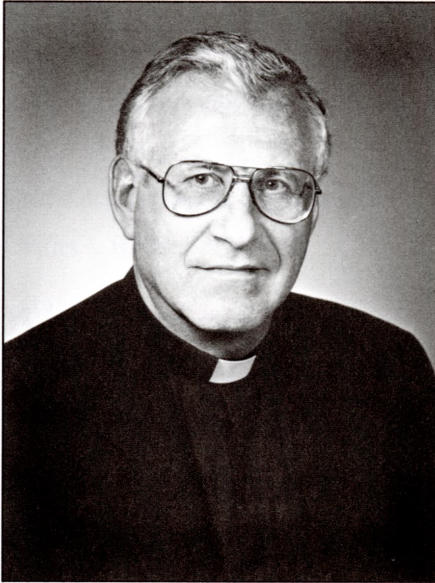

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

COMMENCEMENT MESSAGE

— from —

REVEREND PHILIP A. SMITH, O.P.
President of Providence College

I want to extend my congratulations to each member of the 1996 graduating class. Your days have “dwindled down,” not to an end, but to fulfillment. Thank you for choosing Providence as your Alma Mater, for sharing four of the most precious years of your life with us, and for exemplifying the ideals of scholarship and service, goodness and generosity. You have added joy and richness to our campus. I echo the sentiments of the entire faculty, staff, and administration of Providence College when I say that it has been a pleasure to have taught you and a delight to have known you.

I also extend my congratulations to the parents of our graduates. Most of you have sent your sons and daughters to Providence College at great personal cost. We recognize and appreciate the sacrifices you have made. We are also grateful that you had confidence enough in us to entrust your sons and daughters to our care for four years. We treated your confidence as a sacred trust.

As you leave the confines of our campus today to begin a new phase in your life, may you and those you love always enjoy God’s favor and compassion, guidance and protection. May you always devote some of your time and talents, education and energy to enhancing human dignity and happiness, to improving the lot of the less fortunate, and to making the world a brighter and a better place. Finally, whatever your career or vocation, may you always find personal happiness and fulfillment in it.

Rev Philip A. Smith, O.P.

MARY HIGGINS CLARK

Doctor of Humane Letters

Mary Higgins Clark is the author of 15 worldwide best-sellers: Where Are the Children? (1975); A Stranger is Watching (1978); The Cradle Will Fall (1980); A Cry in the Night (1982); Stillwatch (1984); Weep No More, My Lady (1987); While My Pretty One Sleeps (1989); The Anastasia Syndrome & Other Stories (1989); Loves Music, Loves to Dance (1991); All Around the Town (1992); I'll Be Seeing You (1993); Remember Me (1994); The Lottery Winner: Alvirah & Willy Stories (1994); Let Me Call You Sweetheart (1995); and Silent Night (1995), all published in hardcover by Simon & Schuster and in paperback by Pocket Books. Clark's latest novel, Moonlight Becomes You, has just been published by Simon & Schuster and has been simultaneously released by Simon & Schuster Audio. Many of her novels have been adapted into feature-length films and television movies. Upon graduating from high school, the New York City native attended secretarial school, worked for an advertising agency, and as a stewardess for Pan American Airlines. She married a neighbor, Warren Clark, and began writing short stories; she sold her first story to Extension Magazine in 1956 for $100. Left a young widow with five children when her husband died in 1964, she began writing radio scripts and decided to try her hand at novels. Clark considers her Irish heritage a strong influence on her writing. Her first suspense novel, Where Are the Children?, became a best-seller. In 1974, Clark entered Fordham University and graduated summa cum laude in 1979 with a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy. She is a trustee of Fordham University, a member of the Board of Regents of St. Peter's College, and an active advocate and participant in literacy programs. She has 12 honorary doctorates. Clark served as chairman of the International Crime Congress held in New York in May 1988, and for many years, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Mystery Writers of America, serving as president in 1987. She received the Grand Prix de Literature of France in 1980.

LAWRENCE KINGSBAKER FISH
Doctor of Business Administration

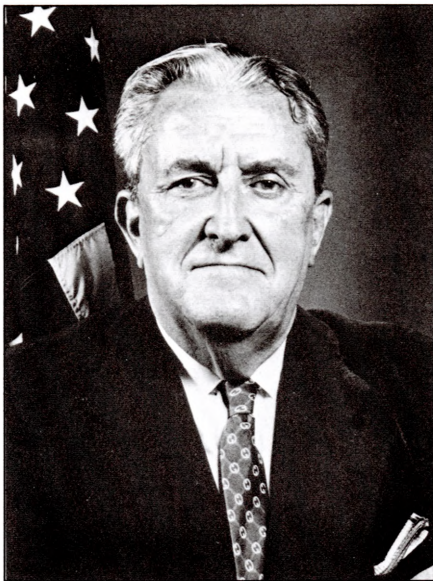

Lawrence Kingsbaker Fish is chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Citizens Financial Group, Inc., a multi-state bank holding company headquartered in Providence, R.I. Under his leadership, Citizens has more than doubled its size in three years to become the fourth-largest commercial banking company in New England and one of the 60 largest in the U.S. He is a director of John Hancock Financial Services and the Royal Bank of Scotland. He is a trustee of Rhode Island School of Design, Beth Israel Hospital, and the National Conference. He co-chairs the state Economic Development Council with Rhode Island Governor Lincoln Almond, and is also chairman of the Rhode Island Commission for National and Community Service. The banking leader is a trustee and board member of the New England Conservatory of Music, trustee of the MacDowell Colony, Inc., and an overseer of the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum. He is past chairman of the Governor's International Trade Advisory Board for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He is a trustee and board member of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. A 1966 honors graduate of Drake, Fish earned an MBA from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration in 1968. He was the recipient of Harvard's Frank Knox Fellowship, which included graduate study at the London School of Economics and study in India. He holds two honorary degrees. Fish's banking career began in 1972 at Bank of Boston, where he worked in various senior positions in Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, and Boston. In 1988, Fish joined the bank's board of directors and was named executive vice president and group executive in charge of all New England banking. Prior to joining Citizens in April 1992, Fish, as chairman and CEO of the Boston-based Bank of New England Corp., led the fight to revive the ailing company. While deterioration of the New England economy and the company's troubled $8 billion real estate portfolio required FDIC intervention in 1991, Fish's efforts were praised by regulators and analysts.
