PROVIDENCE COLLEGE
Seventy-Ninth Commencement

May the Eighteenth, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Seven

The National Anthem

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Alma Mater

From "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

Commencement Message

from

*Reverend Philip A. Smith, O.P.
President of Providence College*

I take this occasion to extend my congratulations to each member of the 1997 graduating class. Your journey at Providence College has “dwindled down,” not to an end, but to fulfillment. Thank you for choosing Providence as your Alma Mater, for sharing four of the most precious years of your life with us, and for embodying the ideals of scholarship and service, goodness, and generosity.

I extend my congratulations to the parents of our graduates. Most of you have sent your sons and daughters to Providence College at great personal cost. We recognize and appreciate the sacrifices you have made. We are also grateful that you had confidence enough in us to entrust your most precious possessions, your sons and daughters, to our care for four years. We treated your confidence as a sacred trust. I also convey my congratulations to the graduates of our School of Continuing Education and our Graduate School. Your journey has taken you on a different course in many instances. You have had to balance your studies with your obligations to family and work. We acknowledge and applaud your achievements and are delighted to welcome you fully into the Providence College family.

I echo the sentiments of the entire administration, faculty, and staff of Providence College when I say to all our graduates that it has been a pleasure to have taught you and a delight to have known you. You have added joy to our days and richness to our lives. As you leave the confines of our campus today to begin a new phase of your journey through life, may you and those you love always enjoy God’s favor and compassion, guidance, and protection.

May you always devote some of your time and talents, education, and energy to enhancing human dignity and happiness, to improving the lot of the less fortunate, and to making the world a brighter and a better place. Finally, whatever your career or vocation, may you always find personal happiness and fulfillment in it.

Rev. Philip A. Smith, O.P.

Sanford Cloud, Jr.
President & CEO of The National Conference
Doctor of Social Science

Sanford Cloud, Jr. is president and CEO of The National Conference (TNC), a human relations organization dedicated to fighting bias, bigotry, and racism in America. A lawyer active in encouraging investments and philanthropic initiatives that aid people of color and the economically disadvantaged, he is the first African American to lead TNC since it was established in 1927 as the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Cloud's efforts for TNC brought together leading thinkers with opposing perspectives to participate in a nationally telecast discussion, "The National Conversation on Race, Ethnicity, and Culture," in 1995. On the international scene, Cloud served as a member of President Carter's delegation to oversee the first Palestinian elections in Jerusalem.

Born and raised in Hartford, Cloud served two terms in the Connecticut Senate. He is credited for the primary sponsorship of legislation creating the state's first Department of Housing. During his career, he has served as a partner in the Hartford law firm of Robinson and Cole, and vice president of corporate public involvement and executive director of the Aetna Foundation at Aetna Life and Casualty, where he directed the company's socially responsible investments.

Cloud currently serves as chairman of the board of the Children's Fund of Connecticut and on the boards of the Hartford Seminary, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation International, Advest Group, Inc., and Yankee Energy Systems, Inc. He is an advisor to the Kellogg Foundation National Fellowship Program.

Cloud holds both undergraduate and law degrees from Howard University and a master's degree in religious studies from Hartford Seminary. He was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of Connecticut for his lifetime of achievement for the betterment of humankind. He and his wife, Diane, are the parents of three children.

Mary Garcia Cullen
World-class runner and philanthropist
Doctor of Humanities

Mary Garcia Cullen of Houston, Texas, a world-class runner, is a prominent member of city, state, and national organizations benefiting amateur athletics, education, and culture.

In 1979, she was named one of the world's top six women runners by Runners World magazine. In 1976 Cullen was named Athlete of the Year by the Gulf Amateur Athletic Union. In 1980 she won the Masters Division of the Houston Marathon and finished the World Masters Marathon Championships in fourth place.

A member of one of the most philanthropic families in Texas, Cullen has served as hospitality chair for the U.S. Athletic Congress and the International Amateur Athletic Federation for the 1984 Olympic Games. From 1986-1992 she served on the U.S. Olympic Committee Board of Directors. Her community involvement has benefited Houston's Sports Foundation, Symphony, Ballet, Grand Opera, and Museum of Fine Arts, as well as the Women's Advisory Council of the Houstonian, and the Depelchin Children's Center, where she formed and chaired the Bayou Cullen Place Committee to provide funds for psychiatric care. She also was a member of a citizens group which worked to bring the NFL Super Bowl to Houston, was an honorary chair for the Houston International Festival's fun run, "Salute to Mexico," and was a member of the Spanish Society, which worked on the establishment of a doctoral program in Spanish at the University of Houston.

Cullen attended Rice University and the University of Houston. She and her husband, Roy Cullen, are the parents of former PC student Meredith Cullen. They have hosted receptions in their home for PC alumni, parents, and friends from Texas. They also serve on the Distinguished Advisory Committee of the Providence 2000 Campaign.

Richard M. Daley
Mayor of Chicago
Doctor of Political Science

Mayor Richard M. Daley has served as chief executive of the City of Chicago for the past eight years, earning a reputation for innovative, community-based solutions to address crime, public education, and economic development. In June 1996 he was elected president of the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

Having obtained unprecedented control over the public school system from the Illinois General Assembly in 1995, Daley is credited with closing a $1.8 billion deficit; launching a $600 million capital improvement program to refurbish aging and overcrowded schools; and establishing anti-violence measures in the schools. On the streets, Chicago's community policing program has become a national model.

Daley has focused on quality-of-life issues in Chicago that include citywide cleanups, the creation of more "green spaces," the implementation of a citywide recycling plan, an increase in the number of available beds for the homeless, and the development of affordable housing.

Many of Daley's accomplishments have been made possible by a series of management changes, such as the turning over of some 40 city functions to private contractors. Taxpayers have been saved over $50 million in operating expenses and city-levied property tax increases have been held to 7.5 percent over seven years, far below the rate of inflation. In 1995 Chicago's bond rating was raised by Standard and Poor's from A- to A, a distinction shared by no other major American city this decade.

Daley, who earned a B.A. and law degree from DePaul University, is the fourth of seven children and eldest son of the late Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley and his wife, Eleanor. Daley and his wife, Maggie, are the parents of four children. Two of Daley's nephews, William Daley, Jr. '94 and Peter Thompson '90, and a niece, Courtney Thompson '89, are graduates of PC.

Robert F. Tasca
Chairman and CEO of Tasca Lincoln-Mercury,
Tasca Ford, and Tasca Enterprises
Doctor of Commercial Science

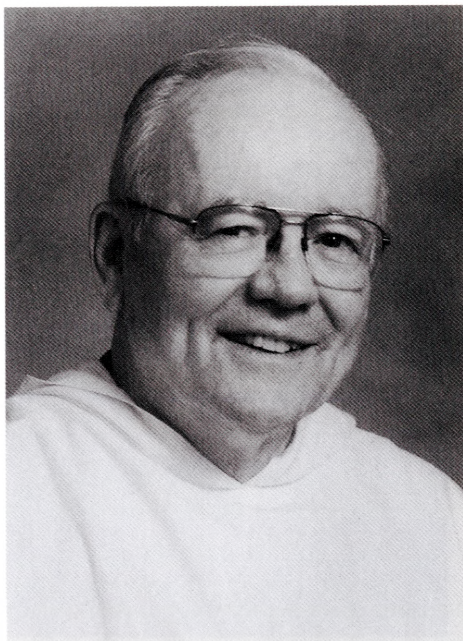

Y*ou Will Be Satisfied* is not only the name of Robert F. Tasca's recent book (Harper-Collins), but his professional and personal creed as chairman and CEO of Tasca Lincoln-Mercury, Tasca Ford, and Tasca Enterprises. His family-run Tasca Lincoln-Mercury was the first dealership in Ford Motor Company's history to rank the largest in volume and number one in customer-rated satisfaction. It is currently among the largest volume Lincoln-Mercury dealers in the nation. The dealership is also among the highest-ranked for customer satisfaction and standards among Ford's highest-volume dealerships.

Tasca's career began in 1943 as a 40-cent per hour mechanic at a Ford dealership. He became a Ford dealer in 1953, a business which was destroyed by Hurricane Carol in 1954 and reborn in 1956 as Tasca Ford. During the next decade, the dealership became the second-largest in the country through ever-increasing volume and customer value.

Tasca is now a consultant for marketing, product design, and quality for the Ford Motor Company worldwide and travels frequently on its behalf.

He holds an undergraduate degree in engineering from the University of Rhode Island and an honorary doctor of engineering degree from Roger Williams University. He is a member of the Providence College President's Council, the Board of Trustees of the New England School of Optometry, the Strategic Planning Committee of the Diocese of Providence, as well as its Parish Cabinet, and sits on the finance and school committees of St. Rocco's Parish in Johnston, R.I. He supports several local children's activities, including Little League baseball, soccer, and basketball teams.

Tasca and his wife, Josephine, have four children and ten grandchildren.

*The Very Rev. W. Urban Voll, O.P.
Prior Provincial of the Dominican Order of Preachers' Province of St. Joseph
Doctor of Religious Education*

The Very Rev. W. Urban Voll, O.P. served the Providence College community as prior and professor of religious studies before being elected provincial of the Dominican Order of Preachers' Province of St. Joseph in 1993. A native of Syracuse, N.Y., he serves as the religious superior of the Dominican Fathers and Brothers assigned to the eastern province, and also serves as chairman of the Providence College Corporation.

A 1946 graduate of PC, Father Voll was ordained a Dominican priest in 1949 in Washington, D.C. He earned a master of arts degree in English from the Catholic University of America and a doctor of sacred theology degree in moral theology from the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception in 1961.

In 1967, the master general of the Dominican Order conferred on Father Voll the post-doctoral degree of master of sacred theology, the highest earned degree awarded by the order. The degree, for which a candidate is invited to stand, is based on the candidate's writings, on a career of at least 13 years, and on an examination of 100 theses in philosophy and theology.

Father Voll taught theology, religious education, philosophy, and English at numerous institutions, including PC; Emmanuel College in Boston; Trinity College in Washington, D.C.; the Catholic University of America's Graduate School of Arts and Sciences; St. Mary of the Springs (now Ohio Dominican) in Columbus; Xaverian College in Silver Spring, Md.; St. Vincent's Major Seminary in Boynton Beach, Fla., where he served as president and rector; and the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception.

A much-published author, Father Voll is a former editor for the Catholic Theological Encyclopedia and The Thomist, a journal of theological and philosophical discussion. He has been a member of the Providence College Corporation since 1972, and served on the Provincial Council from 1972-1976.

Louise C. Wilmot
Deputy Executive Director of Catholic Relief Services
Doctor of Public Service

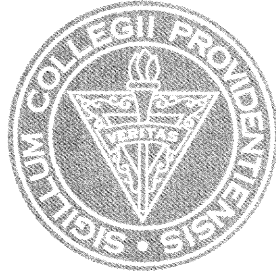

Rear Admiral (Ret.) Louise C. Wilmot was the highest ranking and most decorated woman in the U.S. Navy when she retired in 1994 to become the first woman executive for Catholic Relief Services (CRS), one of the largest relief and development agencies in the world. CRS operates in 80 countries throughout the world funded by an annual budget of over $300 million and with a staff of 200 in Baltimore and 1,700 overseas.

As deputy executive director of CRS, Admiral Wilmot's charge is to educate people in the United States regarding moral responsibilities to alleviate human suffering and promote social justice. She directs education, advertising, communications, and relationships with members of the Catholic Church for the agency that provides both emergency and long-term relief.

She serves as an executive liaison to Interfaith Hunger Appeal, InterAction, National Council of Catholic Women, International Services Agencies, and other related agencies.

Admiral Wilmot served in the Navy for 30 years, most recently as commander of the U.S. Naval Base in Philadelphia, and was the first woman to command a naval base following a distinguished military career. Her military honors include the Navy Distinguished Service Medal (the fourth-highest award within the Department of Defense), the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Legion of Merit (with three gold stars), the Meritorious Service Medal, and the Joint Service Commendations Medal. She is also listed in Who's Who in America.

A native of New Jersey, Admiral Wilmot graduated from the College of Saint Elizabeth in New Jersey and the Naval War College in Newport, R.I. She earned her master's degree from George Washington University. She and her husband, James, reside in Baltimore, Md.
