THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner
by Francis Scott Key
Led by Caitlin M. Griffin '11

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Led by Allison M. Evans '11 and Caitlin M. Griffin '11

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee

Undying love and steadfast loyalty.

From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,

His goodness, grace, and holy power;

Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;

All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,

Firm our advance; naught can us e'er beguile.

To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,

Lift we our voice in full acclaim;

Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;

Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

GEORGE FISHER

Real Estate Consultant, Retired

Representing Members Of The Army Specialized Training Program

The 380 members of the United States Army Specialized Training Program (ASTP) who studied and trained at Providence College during World War II sacrificed education for service—dozens made the ultimate sacrifice—while ultimately preserving the survival of the College.

Today, Providence College confirms honorary bachelor's degrees on the members of Unit #1188 of the ASTP, who enrolled at PC in 1943 but who never returned to complete their education. George Fisher will receive his degree as the representative of his classmates.

The ASTP was a military training program instituted at more than 120 American higher-education institutions. Since the draft age had been lowered to 18 that year—decimating student enrollment—these student-soldiers essentially secured PC's future.

The goal was to train the best and brightest military recruits in the fields of engineering, mathematics, chemistry, history, geography, and English. They were promised a college education and an officer's commission. The Army planned to assign them to the anticipated rebuilding of Europe.

At PC, the Dominican Friars adapted the curriculum, provided classroom instruction, and offered tutoring to help students keep pace academically. The soldiers lived in Aquinas and Guzman halls, attended classes in Harkins Hall, drilled on Hendricken Field, and exercised in the Harkins gymnasium.

As the war escalated, the need for infantry fighters forced the Army to curtail the program. The PC contingent was called to join the war effort in March 1944 and assigned to the 328th Infantry Regiment, 26th Yankee Division.

After training, the division sailed to France to join General George Patton's Third Army in September. After nearly two months of battle, the men crossed the German border—eventually fighting in the Battle of the Bulge, where 80,000 Allied soldiers were killed or wounded.

During 210 days of active combat, the regiment crossed into six countries and engaged in four major campaigns. Thirty-seven members of the original Providence College ASTP unit were killed. A plaque is erected in their memory at PC's War Memorial Grotto.

JOHN D. RATZENBERGER
Actor, Producer, Entrepreneur, Philanthropist

Equally as comfortable on a television production set as he is championing American industry on a factory floor, John Ratzenberger has carved out a tremendously unique and successful career in the entertainment business.

Best known for his role as mail carrier Cliff Clavin on Cheers, Ratzenberger has been a mainstay in the entertainment world for three decades because of his talent and versatility.

In addition to his Emmy-nominated role on Cheers, Ratzenberger has appeared in hit shows including Magnum P.I., St. Elsewhere, Murphy Brown, and The Simpsons (voice).

Having had supporting roles in such blockbusters as Superman, Star Wars Episode V: The Empire Strikes Back, and Gandhi, Ratzenberger is the only actor who had a voice part in all of Pixar's feature films, including all three Toy Story movies, Finding Nemo, and Cars.

Coupling his celebrity with his affinity for American ingenuity, he hosted and produced Made in America on the Travel Channel and co-authored We've Got it Made in America: A Common Man's Salute to an Uncommon Country (Center Street, 2006).

In his effort to expand vocational training across the country, Ratzenberger created the non-profit Nuts, Bolts and Thingamajigs Foundation, whose mission is to inspire the next generation of engineers, artists, craftsmen, and carpenters.

Just as important to Ratzenberger have been the charitable and environmental causes he's supported. His efforts range from helping to raise more than $100 million to combat juvenile diabetes to developing packaging alternatives made from biodegradable and non-toxic recycled paper as a safe alternative to Styrofoam "peanuts" and plastic bubble wrap.

He has received numerous honors for his work as a humanitarian and actor, including an honorary doctorate from Sacred Heart University and the Father's Day Council of America's "Father of the Year" honor.

Ratzenberger attended Sacred Heart and later served on its Board of Trustees. He is the father of Nina K. Ratzenberger, a member of the PC Class of 2011, and James Ratzenberger.
